Clockaudio is set to Exhibit at ISE 2018

The Greatest AV Show on Earth!

December 14, 2017 – Waterlooville, Hampshire, United Kingdom - Clockaudio Ltd., a global leader in pro-AV microphone technologies based in the UK and with offices in North America and Asia, is getting set to appear on the ISE show floor at the RAI Amsterdam in the Netherlands this coming February 6-9, 2018.

Jim Hallington, Managing Director for Clockaudio Ltd. says, "We are excited to be exhibiting at ISE this coming February. We've seen such tremendous success at the ISE shows in the past, with many new business opportunities opening up for us in the AV marketplace, and we anticipate another great year at ISE 2018."

Clockaudio is an International trendsetting developer and manufacturer of Professional Microphones and Audio Processors. At ISE, the company will be exhibiting their CDT-100 (Clockaudio Dante Transporter) which transfers audio and control signals via widely used Ethernet and is able to guarantee perfect sound quality. Also on display will be their latest range of unique ceiling microphones and wireless systems, and an extensive range of gooseneck and boundary microphones.

Rod Geary, International Sales & Marketing Manager for Clockaudio comments, "We always look forward to the ISE shows because it gives us the opportunity to interact with clients, consultants, integrators and potential prospects and a chance to discuss their unique project challenges and present our customization capabilities." For more information about the event, visit the ISE website at www.iseurope.org. Clockaudio's booth stand at the show will be 7-E213.
