Clockaudio Heads to Barcelona for ISE Europe 2022 in Booth 7K650

April 29, 2022 – Waterloo Ville, Hampshire, United Kingdom - Clockaudio Ltd., a global leader in pro-AV microphone technologies based in the UK and with offices in North America and Asia, is returning to the road and a first time visit to Barcelona, Spain for Integrated Systems Europe. ISE Europe runs May 10 – 13, 2022 at the Fira de Barcelona exhibition complex and Clockaudio will be exhibiting in Booth 7K650.

Billed as the largest Pro-AV show in the world, ISE is the world's leading AV and systems integration exhibition. This year the showcase will feature the world's leading technology innovators and solutions providers, plus provide five days of inspiring conferences, events and experiences.

As an international trendsetting developer and manufacturer of Professional Microphones and Audio Processors. Clockaudio will exhibit their latest products with a focus on their plug and play, USB based solutions.

Says Robert Moreau, Managing Director for Clockaudio North America, "We are focused this year on the integrator and bringing solutions that help minimize installation time while providing an incredible level of audio quality and client customization. As we continue to add to our USB line of products, the industry has responded with increased interest and we're excited to be exhibiting at Barcelona this year."

Show expectations are high based on the new venue and will provide a long-anticipated opportunity to reconnect in person at ISE's new home at the Fira de Barcelona Gran Vía exhibition center billed as the second largest trade fair and exhibition center in Europe. At the show attendees will find a multi-faceted, four-day event that features a huge show floor, comprehensive education, professional development programs, conferences, world class speakers and a multitude of affiliated and partner events

The ISE itself, the organization behind the show, is a joint venture between AVIXA and CEDIA, the two leading industry associations for the global audiovisual industry.
