Clockaudio Joins Audinate for Series of Roadshows Promoting Dante Partnerships & Collaboration

September 30, 3033 - Montreal, Canada – Clockaudio, a global leader in pro-av microphone technologies has announced it is joining Audinate for a series of their roadshows across the United States in Texas, California, and Georgia over the next several months.

Clockaudio's strategic manufacturer partnership with Audinate, the market leader in digital media networking for the A/V, conferencing, public address, and broadcast industries, has continued to grow and develop since its inception in 2015. The company now has a series of products that integrate Audinate's industry leading, Dante protocol which includes devices such as the very popular CDT-100 Mark III Audio Transporter and the TIM-1000 Tracking Intelligent Microphone, among other products.

The first Audinate event, titled Dante Connect, is set for Thursday, October 6, 2022, and will be held at the Courtyard by Marriott Dallas/Allen in their Event Center and will run from 9AM – 6PM. This free one-day event will cover all things, Dante. Attendees can experience new Dante solutions and applications in Dante audio and will be showcasing many integrated products.

Robert Moreau, Managing Director for Clockaudio N.A. shares his excitement about the show, "This is an event where attendees can see the latest Dante-enabled products on the market from some of the most prominent AV manufacturers in the industry together in one room. We are proud to be part of it and to have our products on hand to share with industry peers."

In addition, the event provides training on Dante and other courses on switch configuration and Dante Certification and is a must attend even for AV designers, consultants, integrators, engineers and network managers.

Future events will be held Wednesday, November 9th, at Hilton Los Angeles North in Glendale, California and in Atlanta, Georgia at also later this year.
